UCV Funds: Some Good News!

The UCV Board of Trustees is pleased to announce that a number of our congregation's Funds, created by generous donations from UCV members and community foundations, are being put to excellent use. At the February 23rd meeting, the UCV Board approved the donation of monies from UCV Funds for the following fabulous projects:

Religious Freedom, Canadian Style: Sharing Knowledge and Respect Among Many Faiths

$8,000 from the Robert & Anna Koerner Foundation Community Fund.

In partnership with the Multifaith Action Society, UCV's Children and Youth Religious Education program will help produce a curriculum, workshops, and evaluation tools for a Phase I initiative to promote understanding and dialogue between members of world religious communities in the Lower Mainland.

Social Housing for Vancouver's Homeless Residents

$3,000 from the Ted Anderson DTES Fund and $2,000 from the Faithful Fools Vancouver Fund.

Grandview Calvary Baptist Church is building 26 units of social housing on their property at 1st and Victoria. We're so impressed by the vision, business plan and commitment of Grandview Calvary Baptist Church that we're delighted to make this donation. For more information see www.news1130.com/2015/12/11/east-van-church-nearing-its-financial-goal-to-build-social-housing/

Truth, Healing, and Reconciliation Reflection Guides

$2,000 from the Faithful Fools Vancouver Fund.

These guides are currently under development by the Truth, Healing, and Reconciliation Reflection task force of the Canadian Unitarian Council. The reflection guides will further our interfaith work as Unitarians in Canada. They will help train us as allies and further enable us to concretely act on the recommendations of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, specifically in regards to Education.

The Unitarian Church of Vancouver is able to make these kinds of significant donations to worthy projects because of the generosity of our members. We encourage you to make contributions to the various Funds of our church; you can do this anytime! If you have any questions about UCV Funds and making donations to these funds, please contact UCV Board President, Diane Brown or Rev. Steven Epperson.
