Easter Pageant: a Tale of Wheat

Rev. Steven Epperson
and UCV members

We celebrate Easter with an all-congregation worship service in story, music and pageantry. Join us as we present the unlikely and stirring story of the discovery of a distinctive Canadian strain of wheat: its birth, eclipse and return.

Chalice Choir singing.

April 8

Nurturing Compassion Together

Rev. Steven Epperson

Our pledge drive kick-off lifts up the vision of our congregation and the deeper meaning and purpose which our community and religion bring into our lives.

With the Chalice Choir and guest musician Tony Turner, former federal scientist and composer of folk hit "Harperman."

April 15

An Invitation to Love and Justice

Rev. Steven Epperson

After having seen ways in which religion can run off the rails (March 18), you are invited to explore how it could be a force for love and justice in the world.

An Invitation to Love and Justice is the theme of this year's Annual Meeting and Conference of the Canadian Unitarian Council taking place in Hamilton, Ontario May 18-20.

April 22

All My Relations

Aline LaFlamme

The Environment Committee is honoured to present Aline LaFlamme as guest speaker for the Earth Day service. Aline will share the Aboriginal world view with a focus on how all things in Creation are viewed and how that impacts our sense of ourselves in relation to all life forms. This results in a Bill of Responsibilities rather than a Bill of Rights.

April 29

Adventures in Housing: A Personal Perspective

Rev. Steven Epperson

For sixteen years now, I have seen and experienced the strange, difficult, and confounding landscape of housing in Vancouver (and across urban Canada). I have some stories to tell! No doubt, many of us have.

Space for Feminism:

Tales of Resistance and Persistence from Vancouver Women's Library

The Vancouver Women's Library is a 100% volunteer-powered free lending library and community resource network and space. With a view to increasing intercultural and inter-generational respect, dialogue, and friendship, the membership at this little library has grown to over 500 in just one year. Having just passed their first anniversary in their physical location at 1255 Kingsway, volunteers of VWL will speak on the highs and lows of organizing in a space that is specified for women and girls, by women and girls. They will also discuss some of their goals and dreams for the future of the Women's Library with a view to hearing input from the audience for what they would like to see as well.

Mostly Listening

George Atherton

More a shared practice than anything else, a principles group is a small group where everyone has a voice and is heard. It's mostly listening. (See tiny.cc/onlistening for an interesting piece on listening.) It's where group members can learn from one another the many ways Unitarian principles come up in life, as it happens from day to day.

Canvass 2018 Nourishing Compassion Together

Please watch for your pledge packet!

We're sending out 329 pledge packets by email and 92 by traditional post. April is when we reflect on the meaning of our beloved community in our lives and decide how much we can contribute financially for the next church year. The number is written as a "pledge."

Completed pledge cards will be gratefully received at the canvass information table in Hewett Centre after worship services April 8, 15, 22 & 29. Questions: John Smith 604-732-0100.
