UNITARIAN CHURCH OF VANCOUVER

At the front of the church you will find unlit candles. You are welcome to light a candle in remembrance, in gratitude, in prayer, in celebration.

*The prelude helps to create a spirit for shared celebration and worship.
Please refrain from conversing and please turn off your cell phones.*

Warm Welcome!

Please visit our Visitors' Table in the Sanctuary foyer and get a nametag. Drop by the Welcome Table in Hewett Centre after the service and stay for coffee or tea and friendly conversation. Learn about our congregation. Look for people wearing yellow nametags, who are welcoming you today.

The seats in the rear of the church are reserved: (when facing the front) left side for those needing to slip in and out of the service, and right side for persons in wheelchairs & strollers. The UCV Campus is a non-smoking environment.

TODAY AT UCV

MEDITATION: Join us for the Sunday morning sitting meditation at 10 – 10:45 am in the Meditation Room. There is brief guidance at the beginning of each sit. Inquiries: victoriaoginski@gmail.com

SERMON DISCUSSION: 12:15 – 12:45 pm at a designated table in the Hall. Newcomers/regulars welcome!

ART EXHIBITION: Robert Gary Martin (Bob) 1943-2018 In the last 15 years Bob became a prodigious artist. He produced vibrant, beautiful paintings, especially in the hard-edged style of expressionism. Bob never wanted to say much about his paintings except to tell people how much fun he was having and how lucky he was to have the time and resources to paint. He believed that creative expression was part of being human and recognized that access to doing and showing art was connected to privilege in our society. He wanted his viewers to experience their own reaction to his work, and loved to hear how friends and family responded to his art. As he used to say, "if you don't like a colour, sit with it for awhile." This is his fourth art show and as per tradition, his grandchildren were asked to name his paintings. These paintings were named by his granddaughter Maiya.

Families with Children, Welcome!

Parents of toddlers please check in at the first room in Hewett Centre (Lindsey-Priestly) with the Guides before the service. Depending on your child's needs and personality you and the Guides can decide whether your child stays with you or joins any older kids who attend.

Children's Program: We are committed to providing safe, compassionate, age-appropriate programming for all children and youth who attend or visit UCV. Our goal is to find the Fun with Meaning! Our Summer program is small and laid back, focused on games, gardening, and art led by volunteer guides and parents. Activities are open to both members and visitors. Everyone attends the start of service together through the chalice lighting, opening hymn, and story for all ages.

After the story children ages 3-12 may join our Religious Exploration Guides in Hewett Centre for garden activities, games, and art. (see note above about children under age 3).

Children and babies are welcome to remain with their adult family members through the service if they prefer.

Please meet your child in the first room in Hewett Centre (Lindsey-Priestley) or in the garden after the service: children under age 9 will remain with the Guides until met by a responsible family member.

Youth Group: Our High School Youth Group (grades 8-12) does not meet during the summer. During the school year our Youth Group is led collaboratively by the youth and adult advisors. They meet weekly to explore issues of faith development, social justice, life experiences, trials, tribulations, and joys and sorrows of navigating life—through games and small group activities. Other activities include monthly youth sleepovers at the church, Regional UU Youth Conferences, and the UU-United Nations Office (NYC) Spring Seminar on Climate Justice in April. Please contact Olivia Hall (oliviahmargaret@gmail.com) or Kiersten Moore (dre@vancouverunitarians.ca) for more information.

Children and babies are always welcome in our worship services. To parents and responsible adults, we offer some tips to help you and your children be at ease:

- Mother Nature put the wiggle in children; don't feel you have to suppress it in our church.
- Sit towards the front where your child can see what is going on; backs of heads are boring! Help your child by being a role model.
- Gently and quietly explain what is going on, how people are listening or participating.
- Answer your child's questions with a quiet whisper—they often whisper back.
- Encourage your child to work with their Buddy Bag to help them concentrate on worship.
- If your child needs to leave the service, please feel free to come back. We believe children belong in sacred spaces.
- The service can also be heard in the foyer and in Hewett Hall where a playroom is open for your use.

UCV COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

PREPARE FOR PRIDE: UCV is proud to have been an officially welcoming congregation since 1995 (the second in Canada). This year we're celebrating pride with a new rainbow-themed book mark with the principles and sources. Please pick up one or 2 or 3 and take home. When someone asks you about the Unitarians, you'll be ready! – Mary Bennett, Chair, UCV Communications Committee.

DO YOU ENJOY LIFE WRITING? A weekly summer writing group is forming for those writing narrative poetry, memoirs, or autobiographical fiction facilitated by Andrea Nicki, author of three prose poetry books, editor, and professor in ethical leadership at Fairleigh Dickinson University. Meetings will consist of sharing/discussing work with an emphasis on mutual appreciation and the option of receiving input. Registration is required: NICANDR4@AOL.COM. The meeting time of the group will be determined after taking a poll of registrants.

2019-2020 DIRECTORY OF SMALL GROUPS AND COMMITTEES: Are you looking to get involved with a group but not sure what's available? Our updated Directory will help you navigate our complex Unitarian community. You can find hard copies on the Welcome Tables or in the office. If you'd like an e-version, contact Sheila R. at sresels@gmail.com.

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE: Over the next few months I REALLY need help finding great candidates for our board after next November ... this is a crucial time. If you can help on this committee or you know it's your time to step forward for the board, contact Marg at mfletcher508@gmail.com or 778-772-1120. Thanks! – Marg Fletcher

FORUM COORDINATOR NEEDED: Would you like to make a contribution to the UCV community using your organizational skills? We are looking for a Forum Coordinator for the forums being held on Sundays after service by various groups. You would be responsible to be in communication with the groups holding the forums and to relay the forum info to the office staff and UCV communications. It is an important role, but would only require a few hours a month. If this seems like a fit for you, please contact Cindy Cashin, chair of the Program Coordinating Council at cindy_returns@yahoo.com

SUMMER CHILDREN'S VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: The Children's Program needs volunteers for July and August Sundays to be Family Guides—to greet and welcome families and to engage any children over age 4 in either gardening, art, games, or any combination thereof. Please find the sign-up sheet circulating in the sanctuary—or after the service in Hewett Hall. See Kiersten Moore, DRE for Safe Congregation Policy forms. See <https://vancouverunitarians.ca/community/volunteer/>.

JOIN OUR SUNDAY MORNING GREETERS! (aka, the Ushers). We are in need of more people who can volunteer approximately one hour, once a month, to welcome visitors and members of the congregation to Sunday morning worship service. You would hand out the Order of Service as people arrive, and help to collect the offertory. After the offertory, you can sit in the Sanctuary for the remainder of the service. This is a pleasant way to meet other people, and to take an active role in the life of our community. You will join an experienced team of greeters on the Sunday of your choice. No experience necessary – on the job training provided! For more information, please contact Denise Nereida at 604-731-7630 or ditzah@telus.net
