

A young Julia Ward Howe (About 1855). She was an American poet, an advocate for abolitionism, social activist, and author, famous for writing The Battle Hymn of the Republic. Illustration: Hulton Archive / Getty Images

A Mother's Peace

Rev. Lara Cowtan

Live streamed from the UCV Sanctuary – May 9, 2021

